TIMELY WARNING.

The indications become more apparent every day that the principal contest for local reform will be made next year in the State and county conventions of the Democratic party. That the Silver party is practically dead is admitted by the leaders of that whitish organization. The rank and file will naturally, and from principle, vote the national and only silver ticket in the field, while the office-seekers and the entire element which has brought our State government into such a deplorable condition, morally and financially, will make a "break-neck" rush into the party, which, headed by Bryan, will sweep the State so far as the electoral ticket is concerned. The latter, as they did in the Silver party, will attempt to prostitute the almost sacred cause of bimetallicism to their own selfish ends and purposes. They hope to also debase the Democratic party by crowding themselves to the front, and, under the enthusiasm for Bryan and silver, make it the means of continuing their system of robbery and corruption rule in the State. That this is the scheme is beyond all question. Indeed, some of the conspirators have made their boasts that the leaders of the Silver party of the past will control the Democratic party in Nevada in 1900.

Under these circumstances, and conditions it behooves the honest silver men, of whatever political antecedents, to take timely warning and to be prepared to meet the enemy and frustrate their pernicious designs. They should act as a unit, to see that no man who is not known to be in opposition to the corruption and plundering gang, and who can be trusted to act accordingly, shall have a vote or voice in any Democratic convention held in the State. The persons with whom we have to cope care nothing for silver, the Democratic party, Bryan or anybody or anything, except as a means for office, plunder, pelf and power. They would attach themselves to the Republican or any other party that prospectively held the winning hand in the State at the next election. Principle is nothing with them, and their connection with any political party is pollution to it. There are honest and sincere silver men enough in the State to carry the electoral ticket by at least a two-thirds majority, and there is no necessity for hypotheating the commonwealth for another two years to the little gang of plunderers who have pushed our State government to the verge of bankruptcy and who would complete their ruinous work if again entrusted with the reins of power. Let them go to hades, or anywhere else—except into the councils of the Democratic party of the State.

Mr. CLEVELAND does not say that he is willing to run for the presidency again, but he has allowed it to be inferred that no committee charged with the duty of apprising him of his nomination for a third term shall be compelled to hunt through the woodshed or behind the smokehouse in order to find him.—Chicago News.
If ever such a hint is made, it will not be by a committee of the Democratic National Convention, although it is not unlikely that he may be used as was Palmer in 1896, as the head of the Republican contingent in 1900. He is eminently fitted for the place, as he represents nothing that is Democratic and everything that is dear to the latter-day Republicans of the Hanna-McKinley class and variety.

The new law in California requiring the newspapers and other journals of general circulation to add the name of the writer to every article published which is in any way personal, has gone into effect, and many papers are now ridiculing the bill and its author by printing the reporter's name after every personal item, such as "personal" or "local mention" of the doings of people. It is laughable to see the way in which the Sacramento Bee and other papers sign every little item. Their idea is, evidently, to make the thing ridiculous that the next Legislature will repeal the law.

ALCOHOL and Egan should at least have furnished chloride of lime, to be served with their embalmed beef.

Remove It.

The Southern Pacific has ordered the town authorities to either paint the old engine house on the Plaza or remove it. It has always been an eyesore to the people of the town and should be removed. Painting would only make its ugliness more glaring.

A Novel Show
Norris Bros. trained animal show will exhibit in Reno, Wednesday, April 26. Norris Bros. show is by far the largest enterprise of its kind in America. It will undoubtedly be well received. The aggregation comprises Shetland ponies, dogs, goats, monkeys, the smallest performing elephant in America and the only educated zebra in the world, which number over two hundred and furnish an entertainment of a very unique and interesting character.

The method used in their education has been kindness and gentle firmness, and they are said to display a cheerfulness during their performance which lends much enjoyment to the entertainment. The program includes a military drill by Shetland ponies, bare back riding acts by dogs, goats and monkeys, a very exciting leaping contest by twenty English greyhounds, and a minstrel first part in which fifty dogs take part, including a great variety of interesting specialties. The clowns and other comical characters afford much amusement. Perhaps the most exciting feature on the program is the work of the animal fire department.

The entire parade will be seen on parade daily at 11 A. M.

It is a sure and safe remedy for all the ailments of children, and is the only remedy that can be trusted to cure them. It is the only remedy that can be trusted to cure them. It is the only remedy that can be trusted to cure them.

Society's New Departure.
The "coon" party to be given in Reno on the 28th indicates that our town is not slow to pick up the latest fads in society. A picturesque "coon" "make-up" always arouses the merriment of spectators, and when they are to be seen by the hundreds no more attractive scene can be imagined. The ball will be preceded by a grand colored parade led by Hastings' Cornet Band. It is said Virginia City will send a carload of fun-lovers to represent her at the party. Judging from present indications the affair will be a great success.

Piute War Claims.
To whom it may concern: I am prepared to collect from the United States government the claims allowed by the appropriation bill which passed Congress March 3, 1899, for the payment of moneys expended by citizens of Nevada during the Piute war.

Of course the old lady is not "on to" everything in this world, and neither is Loof—maybe.

the substance of an interview with a citizen of White Rock, which is situated only a few miles from the scene of the late trouble. According to the Independent's informant there has been considerable friction between Superintendent Mayhugh and the reservation employees since the former took charge. It appears that when the lady superintendent of the school took charge that Mr. Mayhugh requested her to recommend the discharge of an Indian named Brown, who was the farmer under her. After making proper inquiries she refused to do so, and Mr. Mayhugh discharged him and ordered him off the reservation, but the authorities at Washington caused him to be reinstated. The cause of the feeling of Mayhugh against Brown was the refusal of the latter to sign a report for school supplies which he claimed did not come within his life of duty. Since this time the ill feeling between the two parties has grown worse, and the employees at the reservation, with the exception of Meyer, the farmer in charge who took a shot at the schoolmaster the other day, took the side of the plucky woman. The feeling is so bitter that it is reported around White Rock that the Superintendent of Schools sends all her important mail to the Government by Indians to Mountain City, giving as her reason that her letters do not reach their destination when forwarded through the reservation mail.
The trouble between Mayhugh and the doctor has grown out of Mayhugh's refusal to permit the doctor to attend to professional calls outside of the reservation. This action of Mayhugh puts the people of that section to a great deal of unnecessary trouble and expense in case of sickness, and as a consequence he has but few friends among the settlers.
Since Mayhugh took charge of the reservation reports say that there has been continual trouble between him and the employees. The Independent's informant says that but few of the Indians on the reservation like Mayhugh and the only employee that he gets along with is the obnoxious Meyer, who shot at the superintendent of schools the other day.
Latest from the Reservation.
District Attorney Summerfield last evening received the following telegram from the United States Marshal's office in Carson:
"Mayhugh wires from White Rock as follows: Come immediately; murder attempted. Attempt to murder agent; also agency farmers."
"Humphreys, Deputy."
Mr. Summerfield wired Mr. Mayhugh to telegraph names of defendants, witnesses, date, particulars, etc., and he would file the complaint and have warrants for arrest issued and send the United States Marshal to serve them.
Harry Martin's Wedding.
Harry Martin, one of our well known and respected young men, was married at San Rafael last Saturday to Miss Edna Rodden, a beautiful young lady of that place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Mackenzie of San Francisco, the eloquent divine who delivered the baccalaureate sermon at the State University two years ago. Edmund Stadtmiller acted as best man, and Miss Clara Martin the maid of honor. Miss Anna and Miss Gertrude Martin were bridesmaids. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents after the wedding. The couple left San Rafael Saturday evening on their bridal tour. After spending some time in southern California they will leave for the Hawaiian Islands. On the return they will make their home in Reno.
Represented Capitalists.
There was a smooth Ephraim struck the town a week or so ago who claimed to represent some wealthy English capitalists who would arrive in a few days for the purpose of making extensive investments in ranches and property in this vicinity. Several of our citizens went to considerable expense toting him around in carriages to view desirable property, and, although none will admit that they were victimized financially, their silence speaks louder than words. At all events, the last seen of him he was hoping it down the canyon with his moccasins pointed in a direction reverse from Reno, and the capitalists have not yet materialized in our river-side metropolis.
New Marble Works.
Under the heading "New To-day" appears the advertisement of C. Borghese & Co., granite and marble workers. The gentlemen come here highly recommended and are prepared to do all kinds of cemetery and building work in the best of workmanship and at reasonable figures. The public is invited to inspect work and obtain prices before ordering. Orders left at Colombo House, corner Virginia and First streets will receive prompt attention. Read their ad. in this issue.
Captured at Last.
Moore, the murderer of Kilroy, a policeman in Nevada City, Cal., for whom the officers have had a long and weary hunt, was captured by Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county, near Old Bay Point, yesterday afternoon. There is no doubt but he is the man wanted in Nevada county. He was armed with two revolvers when taken.

Andrew Mikkelsen's Funeral.
The funeral of Andrew Mikkelsen Sunday afternoon was attended by our citizens in general. At the Baptist Church, where divine service was held, a procession was formed which accompanied the remains to the cemetery. The University cadets, under arms, acted as escort to the funeral cortege. Veterans of the Civil War and such members from Reno of the Nevada battalion, including Captain Stoddard, recently mustered out of the United States service, were in line. The Danish society of Reno, of which the deceased was a member, came in order after the military. Next came the ministers who conducted divine service, and the bearers containing the casket, covered and draped with the Stars and Stripes. Following the bearers were carriages in which were the relatives and dear friends of the deceased. Then came the carriages of citizens and the general public.
The sidewalks of the streets over which the procession passed were crowded by people who were taking a sorrowful interest in the last sad rites attending the remains of the soldier who had given his life to his country. After a journey of seven thousand miles from Manila to Reno the body that once held the noble and brave soul and spirit of Andrew Mikkelsen has been received by mother earth and is at rest in his adopted and beloved country. Well may he have loved his adopted country and well may we all love it more than we have loved it, when we have seen returned over so great a distance by our government the body of a fallen soldier, to receive sepulture from the hands of kind friends and loving relatives. Our government and people lead in all that is kind and humane, which is the crowning proof of advanced civilization.
Believes Them Guilty.
J. N. Thacker, of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s detective force, believes most firmly that Shaw and Bowie, who were acquitted by a jury at Winnemucca last week on a charge of train robbery, were guilty. He believes that upon the same testimony they would be convicted in the U. S. Court upon the charge of stopping the mail. This is the only charge on which the federal court would have jurisdiction, as there was no attempt made to rob the mail car, and as the penalty is only $100 fine or fifty days imprisonment in a county jail, it is questionable whether the government would consider it profitable to expend probably a thousand dollars to secure the infliction of such paltry punishment.
Card of Thanks.
The members of Valdemar Lodge No. 12 of the Danish Society, by this means desire to return their heartfelt thanks to all those who so kindly assisted in the burial of their brother, Andrew Mikkelsen, and especially do they thank Dr. Stubbs, Rev. Hudeston, the volunteers, G. A. R., University cadets and the JOURNAL. Their friendly acts prove that the spirit of loyalty is always uppermost in the minds of the American people and that they are not only loyal to their country, but also to those who have taken unto themselves the defense of the flag of their adoption. VALDEMAR LODGE NO. 12, DANISH SOCIETY.
Reno, April 24, 1899.
New Millinery.
To ladies of Reno and vicinity: The Misses Barrett, late of the Baldwin and Adcock's millinery establishments, San Francisco, are receiving their spring and summer stock from the east. Hats made to order a specialty. Corner Third and West streets.
Funeral of Mrs. Finlayson.
The remains of the late Mrs. Jessie Finlayson will arrive from Anaconda this morning. Mrs. Lyman of Anaconda will accompany her sisters Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Lee, and Mrs. Lewis on the train conveying the remains. Their sister, Mrs. Gillespie, will come from Los Angeles to attend the funeral. The funeral will be held Wednesday. Notice of the time will be given later.
Demand for Small Residences.
There is a great demand in Reno for small tenement houses of from four to six rooms. Persons are inquiring every day for such residences and the supply is not equal to the demand. There is no better investment anywhere than in property of that kind in Reno. We are confident if twenty more were ready for occupancy that they would be rented inside of two weeks.
No Hope.
Mrs. F. McRae received another telegram on Sunday relative to her brother, Ira Loomis, who was injured by a team accident at Albuquerque, New Mexico, last week. The dispatch states that the patient's back was broken, and that there was no hope for his recovery. Upon his death, the remains will be taken to Los Angeles for interment.

Reno, March 13th, 1899.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AT a meeting of the stockholders of the Washoe County Bank, held at the City of Reno, Nevada, on the 25th day of February, 1899, an assessment of two and a half dollars ($2.50) per share was levied upon each and every share of the capital stock of the company payable immediately to the secretary. Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid on the 25th day of April, 1899, shall be deemed delinquent, and may be sold and sold to pay such delinquent assessment, cost of advertising and expense of sale.

E. S. OGDEN, Secretary.
Reno, March 1, 1899.

times received out a similar case. This was meager enough, but the news editor was equal to the occasion. The following morning among the other matters of news, the readers of The Times found this startling information:

"A savage lander got into St. Petersburg yesterday and the people of the city were terrified. After considerable difficulty the beast, which came from Tibet, was captured, taken to a remote place and there dispatched. It is said that this is the first animal of the sort ever seen in Russia. How he reached the city after his fights with the natives of Tibet, which is a comparatively unknown country, is a mystery."

Big Leaves of Bread.

The largest loaves of bread baked in the world are those of France and Italy. The "pipe" bread of Italy is baked in loaves two or three feet long, while in France the loaves are made in the shape of very long rolls, four or five feet in length and in many cases even six feet.

A Burman mile is about equal in length to two English miles. The word for "mile" in Burmese means "to sit," and a mile is the distance that a man goes before he considers it necessary to sit down.

To the Public In General.

RENO, Feb. 6, 1899.

Having a full set of Abstract Books of Washoe County under process of compilation, I am prepared to search records and make abstracts of titles at any time at reasonable rates. Office in Court House, Reno, Nev.
